TCI History Alive! Quotes

Quote A

“All communities divide themselves into the few and the many. The first are the rich and the well born; the other, the mass of people. ...The people are turbulent and changing; they seldom judge or determine right. Give therefore to the first class a...permanent share in the government...they therefore will ever maintain good government.”

Quote B

“Our country is too large to have all affairs directed by a single government.”

Quote C

“The small landowners are the most precious part of the state.”

Quote D

“It must be by this time evident to all men ...that [the Articles of Confederation] is a system so radically vicious and unsound as to [need]...an entire change.”

Quote E

“The superiority...enjoyed by nations that have...perfected a branch of industry, constitutes a...formidable obstacle.”

Quote F

“I consider the foundation of the Constitution as laid on this ground--that all powers not delegated [given] to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states, or to the people...”

Quote G

“The powers contained in a constitution... out to be construed liberally in advancement of the public good.”

Quote H

“I am not among those who fear the people. They, not the rich, are our dependence for continued freedom.”
